URSINUS HEAD TENDERS RESIGNATION

Grizzlies Close Season With 6-0 Setback By P.M.C. Eleven in Turkey Day Tussle

Cadet Fullback Scores Lone Touchdown Late in Final Quarter On Short Plunge Following Fumble on Wet Field

"Figure out what 22 greased pigs will do in six inches of mud, and you will understand why P. M. C. had six points against our nothing," was the explanation Jing Johnson gave for the Turkey Day defeat suffered at the hands of P. M. C. as a result of a blocked kick in the fourth quarter of the game at Chester.

Ursinus kicked off to P. M. C. and after an exchange of punts and a penalty on the Cadets, the ball came to rest on the opponents' five-yard line. Lockwood punted out to his own 40 and a little later took the ball at the same spot when Ursinus was unable to make a first down. Neither team was able to advance the pigskin for any considerable yardage, so that the first period was largely a punting duel between Lockwood and Bonkoski.

Near the end of the period, Johnny Grimm crashed through the Cadet line to block a kick and recover the sphere on their 23-yard stride. Three tries at the forward wall netted a total of one yard and a pass on the fourth down was grounded.

Second Quarter

Taking the ball into their possession at this point, the Cadets took to the air, with McFadden tossing a long aerial to Elko which gained 25 yards. This march was halted when Wildonger intercepted a second pass and returned to the center of the field. Ursinus then proceeded to pound the tackles and center to gain three consecutive first downs which brought them up to the home team's 18-yard marker.

Here P. M. C. stiffened and two attempted aials failed for the Bears. From then on until the half ended the Grizzlies were put on the defensive, although at no time did the Military College seriously threaten to score. The half ended 0-0.

Third Period

When the teams returned to the field to begin the final half, the driving rain had turned the gridiron into a morass of oozing mud. As a consequence, both elevens found difficulty in retaining a footing and the backs fumbled the slippery ball a number of times. After P. M. C. had kicked off, Bonkoski immediately booted the oval back to their 45. Two successive forwards landed the Cadets on the Ursinus 24, but here they had to give up the ball when they could not gain the required yardage.

Near the end of this canto, Jakomas, who seemed to be the most consistent ground gainer for the Grizzlies, made the longest run of the period when he received Pollock's punt on his own six and ran it back to the 36. On the next play

Ursinus Is Scene of Religious Confab of Young People Friday

Ursinus College was the scene of the Fourth Annual Young People's Institute of the Philadelphia Classis on Friday, November 29. The general theme of the meeting was "Christ in the Life of the Church".

Rev. F. D. Wentzel spoke on "Is Christ in the Church?", at the general morning sessions and again presided at the assembly in the afternoon. Rev. E. N. Faye was in charge of the literature table and leader in one of the discussion groups. On account of Professor Witmer's absence, the address of welcome was delivered by Professor F. I. Sheeder.

A drama, "The Servant in the House", was presented by the Players' Guild of the First Church of Philadelphia in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium in the evening.

Music Organizations Plan Xmas Selections

Glee Club to Have Permanent Membership Poll

NEW NUMBERS ARE ADDED

With the beginning of December the activities of the Choir and Glee Clubs will center around the holiday music of the Christmas season. Special Yuletide selections will be used by the choir in chapel service throughout the month, and the Glee Club will give a special program of music featured in the old English celebration of the Boar's Head and Yule Log festivities.

Looking forward to an ambitious program of activities planned for the Glee Club after the first semester examinations, the organization will establish a permanent roll of members at their first meeting in December. After that time persons wishing to join the club will have to wait until a vacancy occurs before they can be admitted. Also, definite rules pertaining to "cuts" and punctuality will be put into effect.

Five new selections have been added to the number already in rehearsal. Among these are: "Joshua Fit de Battle of Jericho," a negro spiritual; "Song of the Anvil" by Richard Kountz; "Yes Ma-Ma!" from the collection of Edmund Rickett; "Moonbeams" from Victor Hugo; and Victor Herbert's "Neapolitan Love Song."

Plans are being formulated for the production of a musical comedy or light opera in the spring. This will be the culminating feature of the choral organization for the school year. Definite information will be released as soon as plans develop to the proper stage.

GRIZZLY BOOTERS FINISH POOR SEASON WITH TEMPLE

One Victory, One Tie, Five Defeats On Soccermen's Record

When Coach Baker's booters lost their final game of the season to Temple, they closed a none too successful season.

The Grizzlies tasted of victory only once, when they downed Delaware by a 2-1 score. One deadlock was registered, tying up at two all with the Haverford Jayvees. The Bears fell victim to five teams on their seven-game schedule—West Chester, Dickinson, F. and M., Gettysburg, and Temple.

The booters scored only five times during the season, while allowing their own goal line to be crossed for 17 tallies.

Graduation took a heavy toll from the strong 1934 eleven. Four regular veterans constituted the nucleus around which Doc Baker had to build his team. Lack of material and of experience among the players may account for the unsuccessful season.

Six seniors will be lost through graduation again this year. They are Schaffer, Trumbore, Spangler, Cubberly, Boysen, and Hannaway.

Prospects for next year look a little brighter when the freshman material from this year is considered. Several members showed great promise.

MAY PAGEANT NOTE

May Day pageants should be completed, ready to be placed in the hands of judges, by the end of the Christmas recess. A few general rules must be observed by those who submit manuscripts. Any woman student is eligible. See Mrs. Sheeder for more definite information.

Plans Completed For Dance, Play

Senior Ball Is to Follow Stage Production, "A Bill Of Divorcement"

DEL REGIS TO FURNISH MUSIC

The Senior play, "A Bill of Divorcement," is in the last stages of rehearsal. Although most of the cast are inexperienced, these new actors are progressing most satisfactorily.

"A Bill of Divorcement" is a most ambitious undertaking. It is largely a character study between nineteenth and twentieth century people, who are at swords' points on the subject of divorce—an age old problem, yet ever new. This question is treated in an unusual manner, showing the independence and, in this exceptional case, the unselfishness of youth.

What should you do if your mother were in love with another man?—if your father had been pronounced incurably insane after a period of fifteen years in a sanatorium, only to return one day perfectly normal?

Should you be in sympathy with your recently divorced mother, or with your father who still loves and wants his wife?

For the between-acts entertainment, Mr. Phillip is rehearsing a special orchestra of fifteen pieces, which will play selections from modern musical comedies.

Plans for Ball Complete

Meanwhile, plans for the senior ball, which will follow on Saturday night, have been completed.

Decorations will be in accord with the Yuletide spirit, while the Del Regis orchestra, lately of the Arcadia Restaurant, will furnish the music. Tickets for both the play and ball are on sale daily in Bomberger.

JUNIOR LETTERMEN TO GET "U" SWEATERS IMMEDIATELY

Varsity Club Renders Purchase Possible by Loan

Junior men who have earned letters in a major sport will receive sweaters immediately this year as a result of a loan authorized by the Varsity Club at a meeting held in Bomberger Tuesday noon.

The plan as adopted by the Club was first brought up and discussed at a meeting of the Club in September.

The money to be used in the purchase of the sweaters, usually bought by the Athletic Council in the senior year, will be loaned by the Varsity Club to the Council, until the letter-earner shall have fulfilled the requirements in his senior year, whereupon it shall be repaid to the Club.

In years to come, not only juniors but also sophomores will receive sweaters on the same basis. Funds to put the plan into immediate operation will be secured by the sale of a part of the Club's securities. Subsequent funds will be derived from current income and payments on the loan.

A plan was also suggested whereby the Club should purchase sweaters for the outstanding senior in each minor sport, but no action was taken.

The regular yearly dues of the Club have been abolished, and all members will be admitted free of charge to the annual banquet held in the spring of each year.

Dr. Geo. L. Omwake Resigns As President of Ursinus College

Failing Health Causes Retirement after 24 Years Of Service. Announcement Made at Directors Meeting, Tuesday

DR. GEORGE LESLIE OMWAKE

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College held on Tuesday, President George L. Omwake tendered his resignation, to take effect at the close of the present academic year, June 30, 1936. Dr. Omwake was taken very seriously ill with a heart ailment last Spring, and was granted a year's leave of absence by the Board at its meeting last June. In submitting his resignation to the Board, he stated that while his health was slowly improving, he felt that his physical limitations were unequal to again taking up the burden of the presidency, and that the problems which changing educational conditions were bound to create would be better met by a younger man who could reasonably expect a longer period of activity.

Board of Directors Hears Five Reports

Enrollment, Athletic, Financial Problems Are Discussed

BEQUEST GIVEN TO COLLEGE

The Fall meeting of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College was held on Tuesday, November 26. The attendance at this meeting was large, there being twenty members present. The minutes of the Executive Committee showed that a large volume of business had been disposed of since the annual meeting in June.

A number of interesting and informing reports were presented at the meeting. They were the reports of the Dean and the Treasurer which will be printed and distributed among the alumni and friends of the College. There was a special report by the Registrar in which he discussed the problems of college enrollment. The awarding of scholarship aid, the drawing of students from new centers, the advisability of admitting students at mid-year, and the awarding of open scholarships to women on a similar basis as to men was discussed. The Graduate Manager of Athletics presented a report on the present status and future prospects of athletics at Ursinus, suggesting several plans which might be pursued to secure the best results from our athletic program. There was also presented a special report from a committee of

AN ADDRESS TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

It is no secret that Ursinus College is facing the same question that the Roosevelt Administration is facing—that of balancing the current budget. Strict economy must be enforced and the budget must be pared at every conceivable point. To cut salaries, to decrease appropriations for carrying on the legitimate functions of the College, or to remove entirely functions which the College should rightfully perform, is serious and ought to be avoided. But to avoid this necessity requires increased revenues with which to carry on the work.

Obviously more harm than good would come to the institution if student fees were increased. What sources, then, remain? Two: larger annual gifts and income from an increased endowment. For such funds we must go among alumni and friends of the College.

Therefore, the Weekly again advocates what it urged last May, namely, the publication of an Alumni Bulletin. The idea is not to plague the alumni year after year, because the majority of them cannot afford to give any substantial sum; but we do believe that there are some few among the alumni who could aid materially in strengthening the College treasury, and would do so if they were kept well-informed as to the progress and condition of the school.

As we pointed out before, the Weekly is not suited for fostering that close relationship which alumni should have to the College. But an Alumni Bulletin is suited. So, again, we ask the Alumni Association to reconsider the matter at its earliest opportunity, for its publication need not await the election of a permanent secretary. IF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WILLS THAT IT BE DONE, SURELY THAT SAME WILL CAN FIND A WAY TO DO IT.

FROM OUR FILES

20 Years Ago

Dr. W. W. Bancroft, then a student, wrote an article, "Thanksgiving," for the Weekly and Dr. Calvin D. Yost, then on the faculty, wrote the editorial.

The Board of Directors raised the tuition and board fees in order to meet the annual deficit.

Excerpts from an editorial in The Collegeville Independent were reprinted: "The professor is lenient with a candidate for a degree. He not only tolerates tawdry work, but he sometimes passes the flunker. Probably one third of the college degrees are unearned. But he sits on high and treats the undergraduate as an inferior. If the spirit of the football coach should be introduced into the classroom, college graduates would kick more goals in the game of life."

RAMBLING at RANDOM

Of all vacations, I think I like Thanksgiving the best, for to me it is always a reminder that Christmas is not far away. Although rather short in comparison with those that follow, this is an advantage in itself, for it keeps one from becoming tired of that sort of vacationing and from longing to return to school to enjoy another kind. It may seem odd that one could become tired of a vacation, yet I doubt if there is any one who has not experienced that feeling at some time or another. It just goes to prove that human beings are never satisfied—when they are "here", they want to be "there"; and when "there", they have an overpowering desire to come back "here". I suppose dissatisfaction is necessary, however, or else we should find ourselves in a static state, completely bored.

Thanksgiving Day, for the past two years, has been very wet. Last year I went to a football game, it started to rain, so I, always a faithful supporter of my alma mater, put up my umbrella, shrank into my overcoat as far as I could go, and watched the mud-fest continue, seemingly unaware that rain from the umbrella was trickling down my neck.

This year, once again one of the "old faithfuls", I tried my best to get to the game; but being unable to secure a ticket or transportation and having exactly one Pittsburgh car token to my name, I gave up the idea and bummed a ride home. On the day of the game, while the rain was pouring down, I was comfortably nestled in an easy chair listening to N. Y. U. and Fordham go to it. And to tell the truth, I was glad that I was "here" and not "there."

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

Welcome back, you softies, and cheer up. Only three more weeks and you can give the home town another break.

A few brave lads kept the campus under control during the vacation and all know now what this school would be like if it were not co-ed.

A little game of hide-and-seek went on last week. The boys did the hiding before they left for home, and our friend did the seek. The notorious detective gets the verdict by the count of ten.

SENSATIONAL YOU-MUST-BE-PLEASED OFFER WINS CAMPUS PIPE SMOKERS

READ THESE DETAILS—ACT NOW!

OUR OFFER TO PIPE SMOKERS: Smoke 20 fragrant pipefuls of Prince Albert. If you don't find it the mellowest, tastiest pipe tobacco you ever smoked, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage.

(Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Here's the way we look at the smoking-tobacco question: Anybody can say, "My brand is best—please try my kind."

Our way is different. We say: "Try Prince Albert. We believe you'll like it. But, if you're not delighted, we make good on your purchase." And so, on the fair and square basis that you must be pleased, we ask you to try Prince Albert in your pipe. You'll like it!

Hits the Taste of College Men!

This unusual offer can be made because we know that Prince Albert is what college men are looking for in a mild pipe tobacco. They try it. They like it. That's the story of Prince Albert in a nutshell.

DERR VICTORS IN SECOND HALF OF FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Winners to Play First-Half Champs For Final Standing

Derr Hall emerged from the second round of the intramural touch football league unbeaten, thereby entitling them to meet Brodbeck, the winners of the first half, in a playoff to decide the 1935 champion.

Derr completed her part of the second round last Wednesday when she downed Brodbeck, 6-0, in a hard game. A pass was responsible for the only score. The play-off will take place tomorrow.

The Day eleven showed the greatest improvement in the second round, defeating all their opponents except the Derr team. Brodbeck, winners of the first round, folded badly in the second half, finishing fourth with only two victories to her credit as opposed to three losses.

Last week's games:

Curtis 12, Freeland 0
Derr 6, Brodbeck 0

Final standing in second round:

Sticksters Finish with Five Wins, Three Losses, One Tie

Despite the fact that the hockey team, captained by Doris Roach, faced this season with only six veteran players, the team pulled to a successful finale of five wins, three losses and one tie.

Although the sticksters exhibited fine hockey in their opener, defeating the Buccaneers 1-0, the following week they suffered defeat by the same score at the hands of Swarthmore.

From then on, there was a streak of wins and losses which was not broken until the last week of play when the girls won two decisive victories.

With the close of the season, Captain Roach and Sarah Helen Keyser vacate the forward ranks after three years of spectacular playing, while Ruth Rothenberger has completed her duties as half-back.

Manager Lillian Lucia states that the final official round-up of the team will be at the traditional hockey banquet.

A detailed summary of the season follows:

Ursinus 1, Buccaneers 0
Ursinus 0, Swarthmore 1
Ursinus 1, Alumnae 0
Ursinus 3, Rosemont 0
Ursinus 0, Bryn Mawr 1
Ursinus 0, Drexel 0

HERE'S WHY CAMEL'S MILDNESS APPEALS TO OUT-OF-DOORS PEOPLE

Henry Clay Foster, explorer, tiger hunter, and steady Camel smoker. He has struggled for many a weary mile through bush and jungle... faced many a tense moment when nerves were tested to the limit. Speaking of nerves and smoking, Foster says: "My idea of a mild cigarette is Camel. I've been in some tough spots, but Camels have never thrown my nerves off key, although I'm a steady Camel smoker and have been for years. Camels give me the mildness I want—better taste—the fragrance and aroma of choice tobaccos."

GRIZZLIES LOSE TO P. M. C.

a P. M. C. player fell on an Ursinus fumble to give them the ball on the Bears' 32. Malinski got loose for what looked like a touchdown gallop until Jakomas nabbed him on the 15.

Fourth Period

Bonkoski kicked out from his own ten to the P. M. C. 32 from where McFadden returned it for ten yards. Malinski dashed around end to pick up 20 more and bring the ball into Bear territory. A punt was downed on the Ursinus' two-yard line. Bounce dropped back to kick out of danger, but the ball was wet and a bad pass from center resulted in a fumble, which was recovered by P. M. C. on the Bear one-yard line. Malinski plunged across on the first play.

A minute later P. M. C. was back at the Bear five-yard line knocking for another tally. This rally was staved off, principally because of Bassman's tackling, which was one of the high spots of the entire game.

The proof of the cigarette is in the smoking . . . and it always will be

Smokers—both men and women—want a cigarette to be mild—yet not flat or insipid. At the same time they want a cigarette that gives them taste—taste they can enjoy.

Chesterfields are outstanding for mildness—outstanding for better taste. You can find that out by smoking them.

Just try them—Chesterfields are what they say they are
